

HSPD-12 NEWSFLASH

SUBJECT: PERSON MODEL TRAINING

This fall, the National Finance Center (NFC) will release the Person Model. Below are some details on what you can expect regarding Person Model training.

What kind of training is currently available?

- Sponsor and Adjudicator PowerPoint training modules were distributed to Agency Leads on Friday, September 30, 2011. Like the NEIS training, the Person Model training guides users through the system, step-by-step.
- Person Model Quick Start Guides and Data Entry Guides were distributed as well. PII collection materials and FAQs will be available in coming weeks.

Where can I find the training?

- Contact your Agency Lead for non-employee credentialing for a copy of the training.
- Training will be posted on the LincPass website in coming weeks. Training will not be available on Aglearn initially, but will be posted after distribution to Agency leads.

When should I take the training?

- Role holders should complete Person Model training prior to Person Model go-live.

When will Person Model go live?

- The Person Model is expected to go live on Tuesday, November 1, 2011.

What if I have questions about the training?

- Agency Review Sessions will be conducted with Agency Leads upon request. Attendees will have an opportunity to review training, new system features, and participate in a Q&A session.
- Agency leads interested in scheduling a review session should contact mgoss@cri-solutions.com.

What are the expectations of the user?

- Each Person Model user is expected to complete the appropriate training for their role. Sponsors and Data Entry Personnel will review Person Model Sponsor Training, and Adjudicators will review Person Model Adjudicator Training.
- Users should follow their Agency training and approval procedures for Person Model training.

Who should I contact if I have questions?

- Role holders can contact their Agency Leads for non-employee credentialing, listed on the USDA HSPD-12 website. Once training is completed, users may contact the USDA HSPD-12 Help Desk.

More information regarding the Person Model release and training will be forthcoming in the weeks leading up to go-live.
